NACHC's NEW Leadership Subscription Service

CORE COMPETENCY DEVELOPMENT

Advance knowledge and skill through bi-monthly virtual core content modules, inclusive of pre-work, live engagement with faculty, and implementation activities.

ONLINE COMMUNITY

The hub of the program, this online community houses all learning materials and provides a safe space for peer discussion and resource sharing.

INTENDED AUDIENCE

All staff, with a focus on those new to or aspiring to a leadership/management role in a health center or health center supporting organization.

APPROACH

Bi-monthly experiential and engaging Zoom-based sessions (six in the 2023 calendar year) supported by an online learning community for peer discussion, resource sharing, and discussion. Live sessions are supplemented with monthly facilitated engagement activities held in an online closed community.

NACHC's leadership subscription service is a new offer for 2023, designed to provide a consistent and spaced leadership development opportunity across a full calendar year to all health center, primary care association, health center-controlled network, and partner agency staff to support personal and organizational growth, development, and sustainability.

2023 OFFER

Based on the book, Language and the Pursuit of Leadership Excellence: How Extraordinary Leaders Build Relationships, Shape Culture and Drive Breakthrough Results by Chalmers Brothers and Vinay Kumar, participants will be guided on a journey of self-discovery to use the power of language and conversations as primary tools in addressing concerns and achieving desired results, at work or in personal life.

Leveraging the shared experiences of colleagues, participants will build the conversational, relational, and emotional competencies that leaders at all levels of an organization can employ to improve workplace relationships, shape culture, and create breakthrough results.
